POTTERY

Himalayan Poppy

Spectacular, saucer shaped, bright blue flowers with golden centres in early summer, and that's just the inspiration for the pattern. The actual elusive Himalayan blue poppy thrives in shady places but this pattern would never be hidden away. For us the Himalayan Poppy Collection is a rich, vibrant range of giftware that adds elegance to any room.

Each piece is hand decorated by our artisans and all pieces are proudly made in England.

With Poole Pottery you Truly are purchasing a collectable of tomorrow.
